

MY DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

I declare that I will become independant through practicing the principles of thrift;

I will free my mind from worry;

I will add confidence and optimism and enthusiasm to my plans;

I will prepare against a time when misfortune or old age may come upon me;

I will hold a fund that will enable me to take advantage of the opportunities that are offered me;

I will save my money thriftily and deposit it systematically where it will earn interest for me in the

They started the fore part of last week but had the misfortune to break the car and decided to remain until after the Chautauqua before starting down again. Jim said they would get far enough away this time before breaking down to continue. Their many friends wish them an enjoyable outing.

The new graveled road from the intersection of the hard surface road leading out from Burns on the north to the "sandhill" is going to be fine when it becomes packed. The gravel surface is fine and the recent rains will aid in packing it but it would become packed quicker if we had a roller to put on it. There seems to be but little clay or binding in the surface covering therefore it is going to take considerable time to pack it into an ideal road bed.
